ITEM	DISCUSSION	OUTCOME
1. Review of Minutes from March 11, 2015	The committee reviewed minutes from March 11 th .	Minutes were approved with minor revisions.
2. Planning	Committee goals must be submitted by March 31 st . The Committee wrote out all goals for this academic year and connected them to the College goals.	M. Dougherty will send the goals to the Committee.
3. AWE Multiple Measures (MM) Study and Change in MM Criteria	At the last meeting, we voted to change the MM number from 2 to 3. E. Hill-Enriquez noted that the success rates for 68 and 1A were not affected as drastically; therefore she proposed that we leave the number for 68 and 1A at 2 and make the change only for students MMing into 67. The whole committee altered recommendation from the last meeting to leave the points for English 68 and 1A at 2 but to	M. Dougherty will take this back to English at the next department meeting for a vote on April 7. After the English Department votes, J. Ocampo will draft a proposal to take to SP&S. change the points required to place into 67 from 2 to 3.

4. AWE Placement Satisfaction Survey	J. Ocampo asked what some of the data indicated. M. Tsai clarified that there was a typo with the date, so 2009 should have been 2014.
5. Multiple Measures Update	This was discussed earlier with the Multiple Measures changes.
6. Test Approval Proposals and Appeal	Chemistry test item analysis has been completed. Math and LERN faculty are working on test item analysis for math. Math Test Placement Satisfaction Surveys have been distributed to faculty.
7. Updates	Continuing Ed: D. Necke reported that 270 high school students attended math and English boot camps from January-March of 2015. There were no other updates. Meeting was adjourned at 4:30PM.

Next meeting: April 8, 2015
