2. Reading Competency	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Initially, through the Student Preparation and Success Council, the Academic Senate President and Vice-President directed the Assessment and Matriculation Committee to address reading competency issues. Academic Senate later decided to form a Task Force to address the reading competency requirement at Mt. SAC. Nona Stokes and Michelle Sampat expressed interest in task force membership. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The committee will wait for further direction from Academic Senate/SPAS as to the committee's role on the task force.
3. AWE Pilot Study Proposal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The committee reviewed the proposed AWE pilot study and recommended some changes for clarification purposes. Also, discussed was inter-rater reliability data. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inter-rater reliability data will include current data comparisons with 2011 and 2012. (There is no data available for 2010.

4. Test Prep	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David Beydler discussed his work on creating a math placement test preparation workshop for students. As part of the discussion, questions regarding who would provide the workshops and where would the workshops take place. • It was suggested that this would be a project that may qualify for a Basic Skills Grant. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David will solicit feedback from Learning Assistance math faculty, as well as ABE. • David will look into possible Basic Skills funding.
5. Continuing Education Update	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ABE is trying to increase the number of students who transition to credit courses • WIN/ABE will be conducting the 3rd boot camp for student athletes. • DeeJay will be attending the SSSP Region 8 meeting on December 13. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •
6. AWE Facilitators Update	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evelyn reported that all readers have been trained on the new scoring rubric. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •
7. AMLA Update	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • AMLA is requesting that placement satisfaction surveys be conducted in the fall 2014. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assessment will conduct the surveys during fall semester.
8. Math Update	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • David reported that the math faculty would like to move towards utilizing an adaptive test for placement in math classes. • The preference of the math faculty is the ALEKS program. The ALEKS system would also be useful as a test preparation tool for students. • Two concerns are the cost of ALEKS and the absence of Chancellor's office approval to use it as a placement instrument. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •
9. Counseling Update	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tom announced that 3 counselors were approved for hire as well as an Associate Dean of Counseling. • Tom also reminded committee members that there will now be a 100 unit limit for students to receive priority registration. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •
