Do you need more variety and longer harvest from a limited space? The multiple-budded fruit tree is the answer! Multi-budded fruit trees will give you several fine selections of tree-ripened fruit from the space of a single tree. We offer 4 delicious Pluot interspecific varieties. These hybrids include apricot and plum in its parentage. Additionally, the sugar content of interspecifics is much higher than in standard plums or apricots, yielding fruit of incomparable sweetness.
