		incomplete assignments, low test scores, personal counseling. Then one more recommendations are made to AmLa Tutoring, EOPS Tutoring, WIN, and the Counseling Center, etc. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Once referred, student gets an email. The student receives an email with an attached pdf. The pdf contains a more specific message to students that is different than the email. The pdf is the specific referral and allows the counselor to put in a personalized message. An “estimated grade” also shows with the referral.</li> </ul> The Council discussed the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Will students read the entire email;</li> <li>• Will students click on the pdf?</li> <li>• Can we make this a more interesting set-up?</li> <li>• This model appears to put the responsibility onto the student to follow through but doesn’t seem to engender responsiveness from the counselor to the student.</li> <li>• How can we enlarge how we touch students and encourage them?</li> </ul>	numbers/names of referrals can be tracked for follow-up and tracking. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How can faculty receive feedback Researching what reports can be generated regarding if student have gone to tutoring/counseling etc.</li> <li>• Take another look at the “recommendations” – list of services – what more should be included?</li> </ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Faculty can find out if their students go to tutoring; but not if they go to counseling</li> <li>• How can we coordinate and streamline progress reports from various special programs?</li> </ul> David Charbonneau shared the following report on the recommendations from the Task Force: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Modify system to include the ability to give positive progress reports – call it “early progress report” versus “early alert.”</li> <li>2. Add option: “Visit the professor during office hours”</li> <li>3. Add channel on Mountie Alert.</li> <li>4. Pilot an Early Alert system campus wide from different departments. Now less than 3% are using the system. Before a student can respond, the faculty must initiate.</li> </ol> Counseling referrals are up, as well as tutoring, but few referrals are being made right now.
3.0	Presentation: CIRP - Barbara McNeice-Stallard and Micheline Pontious and Shannon Rider	The following was presented to the Council: Mt. SAC is only 1 of 4 community colleges participating nationwide. Of 1,355 students who took the survey for Fall of 2014, 854 were first time,	The Council recommended reviewing the following data: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Take a look at how specific students are actually doing based on their self-described</li> </ul>

		The following are the highlights of the institution-specific questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How students performed in high school about the same.</li> <li>• Women reported doing well but didn't participate in many school activities.</li> <li>• Males reported doing okay in classes, but had more fun participating in activities.</li> <li>• Rate of Honors and AP English increased by 4% from 2007 to 2014;</li> <li>• 10% decrease in college prep English.</li> <li>• Increase in ESL.</li> <li>• Purpose of attending Mt. SAC: Goals in attending Mt. SAC about the same from 2011 in graduating with AA and transferring as 2014.</li> <li>• Being a new college student: "excitement" was higher, but so was "anxiety" and "fear".</li> <li>• Outside of college: 8% "I am the only one providing income for the family." 63% "my family allows me to concentrate mostly on school" compared previously to 74%.</li> <li>• Going to for advice: 5% report having "no one to go to" for advice and help. Look at more specific responses to "Who will you</li> </ul>	use of smart phone over computers.
