Acknowledging Indigenous Peoples of Mt. SAC

It is important for Mt. SAC to acknowledge that our campus resides on what was historically the homeland of Indigenous People. At the start of each Student Equity Committee meeting, we acknowledge the Indigenous People at Mt. SAC: “We would like to take a moment to acknowledge that we are on Tongva land and recognize them as the traditional caretakers of Tovaangar (the Los Angeles Basin, Southern Channel Islands), what we now call home. We would also like to pay our respects to the Honuukvetam (Ancestors), ‘Ahihirom (Elders) and ‘Eyoohiinkem (our relatives/relations) past, present and emerging.

		Betzabel Martinez shared FPNC events; great turnout with attendance; Grand Opening hosted drum sessions along with elder blessings; Basket Weaving event was well attended as well with both students and staff. Here's the link to read about the events: https://www.mtsac.edu/newsroom/news/posts/native_center_opens.html Francesca Gambini shared an upcoming event La Gringa Play on December 1st. Eric Lara shared the Gratitude Luncheon was well attended from students, staff, faculty, and noncredit; it was a positive turnout.
